

Rearing Healthy Calves

Take this opportunity to get the latest information at a calf rearing workshop.

Delivered by Andrew Hoare from SE Vets, this workshop aims to provide farmers and employees with:

- updates on colostrum management, nutrition and environment
- an understanding of the latest animal welfare regulations for bobby calves
- the chance to network with other people managing or working with calves
- access to professional veterinary expertise
- Dairy Australia's 'Rearing Healthy Calves Manual' and other resources to take home

This free workshop is available to all farmers and employees, and is the perfect opportunity to upskill in rearing healthy calves, and network with like-minded people.
